

Overview

The nectarous aromas of blackberry, cherry, prune and appealing sweet spices are central in our estate grown sweet red wine. A complex fusion of sweet spice, earthiness, and dark fruit combine to form a richly endowed and satisfying sweeter styled wine.

Color/Aroma/Palate

A richly intense, garnet-hued wine with a gutsy character! This chewy and racy St. Croix is packed with intriguing aromas of blackberry, cherry, prune, and appealing sweet spicy notes. A complex fusion of sweet spice, earthiness, plum, and blackberry are entwined within a gratifyingly nectarous finish.

Wine Production Info

Cultivars: 100% St. Croix

Harvest Year: 2009

Bottling Year: 2011

Vineyard: Estate grown at our Brickyard Hill Vineyard; Marengo, IA

Alcohol: 13.1%

Brix: 23.8

Residual Sugar: 9% RS

Oak: None

Cold Stabilization: None

Background: Developed by Elmer Swenson (WI) and St. Croix is the sister seedling to Sabrevoix, a popular wine grape of Quebec.

Pairing and Service

Optimal Serving Temperature: 60 degrees

Cheese: Feta

Meals: A sweeter styled wine; serve as aperitif or after dinner; with spicy food, or with any meal you want.

Awards: Not yet submitted.

